Subject: Plastech Lehman to LLCP (CD 2/19/09)

Hi Kathy,

Lehman Commercial Paper Inc. ("LCPI") has been using, and will continue to use, reasonable commercial efforts to deliver 32,989 Class B Units to LLCP DV Plastech B, LLC (the "Class B Units") and 40,630 Class C Units to LLCP DV Plastech C, LLC (the "Class C Units" and, together with the Class B Units, the "Units").

The SIPC Trustee's counsel is currently reviewing LCPI's directive to Lehman Brothers Inc. to transfer the Units. LCPI has been actively working with the SIPC Trustee to obtain the necessary consents from the SIPC Trustee for the transfer of the Units. Given the complexity of the bankruptcy case and the SIPC proceeding, it is not reasonably practicable that the SIPC Trustee will be able to consent to the transfer of the Units by June 15, 2009.

LCPI kindly requests that your clients, LLCP DV Plastech B, LLC and LLCP DV Plastech C, LLC, extend the date pursuant to which LCPI shall deliver the Units to your clients to September 15, 2009, with the understanding that LCPI will continue to use reasonable commercial efforts to deliver the Units as soon as reasonably practicable.

Do not hesitate to contact me directly with any questions or to discuss further.

Thanks,

Erika N. Finn
